S	2	Psalm 67	By a strange paradox, Japan's military defeat brought about a spiritual liberation of her people. Christianity can fill the vacuum in this land where there is "unprecedented opportunity with overburdening problems!"

S	8	Gen. 3:9-24
2] The First Sunday after the Epiphany			Romans 12:1-5 2 Cor. 6:14-7:1 Luke 2:41-52 1 John 1:35-42
S	9	Psalm 72	According to President Seybold of our Indian mission, more happened in 1947 than in any year of recorded Indian history. 1948 was an equally decisive year, witnessing the end of British rule, the India-Pakistan division with subsequent bloody violence, quieted by Gandhi's martyrdom. The service of Christian missionaries in alleviating the suffering involved in the resettlement of Hindus and Moslems presages the role of Christianity as mediator in the future of India.

S	16	Psalm 47	Dr. Rowland Cross, China Secretary of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, declares: "China's violent transition to democracy is at once an explanation of the present uncertainty and confusion and a ground of hope for the future." Christian missions have definitely found their place in the life of China. In China's 13 Christian Colleges lies her largest hope of democracy!

Second Month

FEBRUARY, 1949

28 Days

Days		DAILY BIBLE LESSON	DENOMINATIONAL EMPHASIS February: Christian Stewardship "Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee."
Week	Month
T	1	Gen. 19:1-29	Christian Stewardship unquestionably holds the key to the answering of the many diversified challenges presented by the Church to her members. Christian Stewardship is not the painless extraction of money from people's purses. It is the dedication of all of life , to be used in God's service for the benefit of all mankind.
W	2	Gen. 21:1-21
T	3	Gen. 22:1-19
F	4	Gen. 23:1-20
S	5	Gen. 24:1-67

6] The Last Sunday after the Epiphany The Transfiguration of our Lord

2 Peter 1:16-21    2 Cor. 3:12-18
Matthew 17:1-9    John 5:39-47

S	6	Psalms 27	Christian Stewardship gets to the bottom of our contemporary problem. Irresponsibility seems to be rife everywhere. People demand their rights without wanting to assume the resultant responsibility. Christian Stewardship is the assuming of one's full responsibility in realizing God's plan for life. It insists that life is a trust, the investment of time, talents and money for the common good of all mankind.
M	7	Gen. 25:1-18
T	8	Gen. 25:19-34
W	9	Gen. 26:1-17
T	10	Gen. 26:18-33
F	11	Gen. 27:1-41
S	12	Gen. 27:42-28:22

7] Septuagesima Sunday

1 Cor. 9:24-10:5    Phil. 1:27-2:4
Matthew 20:1-16    Luke 10:38-42

S	13	Psalms 20	Christian Stewardship provides a Christian motivation. It is a tangible expression of gratitude for our Father's gifts and especially for His greatest Gift, Jesus Christ. Because He loves us, we love Him. Because He has endowed us with certain abilities, we express our appreciation by developing and employing those abilities in high and noble pursuits. Because He has entrusted us with certain material possessions, we prove our worthiness by multiplying and using them to His glory.
M	14	Gen. 29:1-35
T	15	Gen. 30:1-13
W	16	Gen. 30:14-24
T	17	Gen. 30:25-43
F	18	Gen. 31:1-16
S	19	Gen. 31:17-32

8] Sexagesima Sunday

2 Cor. 11:19-12:9    Phil. 1:2-21
Luke 8:4-15    John 11:20-27

S	20	Psalms 71	Christian Stewardship is the one certain avenue whereby the objectives of the Church will be attained. Whether it be missions, Christian Education, evangelism, Christian Social Action, World Service, or other Christian enterprises, a predominating spirit of Christian Stewardship underlies success. Why? Because Christian Stewards of all of life are sincere worshipers, loyal supporters, conscientious workers, and persistent soul-winners. Make the Church membership Stewardship conscious, and the victory is within sight!
M	21	Gen. 31:33-55
T	22	Gen. 32:1-12
W	23	Gen. 32:13-32
T	24	Gen. 33:1-20

9] Quinquagesima Sunday

1 Cor. 13:1-13    1 Cor. 1:21-31
Luke 18:31-43    Mark 10:35-45

S	27	Psalms 19	Constant preaching, teaching, and practicing is required to make Christian Stewardship a prevalent reality.
M	28	Gen. 37:1-11

As we journey in spirit with Christ to Calvary we become increasingly aware of our own sinfulness and how greatly we are in need of redemption and release from the bondage of iniquity and guilt. A sense of our spiritual impoverishment overwhelms us, and in penitence and eager anticipation we turn to God for his forgiveness and saving grace.

S	13	Psalms 32	It is a time for spiritual sharing. The knowledge of what God has done for us on Calvary constrains us to tell others the story of his saving love in Christ. The proclamation of the "good news" by word and deed has ever been the most potent means for the transmission of the faith. The heralding of the gospel is every Christian's privilege and duty. A Christ we do not share is a Christ we do not have.

S	20	Psalms 34	Are we Christians really concerned about the millions of people in our land, still without the Christian fold? If so, what are we doing to reach them for Christ? For the most part we permit a spurious timidity to silence our tongues in matters of faith and delegate the glorious task of witnessing to our Lord to those whom we call our ministers. Such evangelistic indifference and inaction is not in keeping with Christ's charge to all his followers.

S	3	Psalms 43	The anniversary of the Resurrection is a day of rejoicing for every Christian. Now we need no longer fear the grave, for Christ has won the victory over man's greatest foe. On this day we proclaim the good news that the Lord is risen indeed. On Easter we celebrate the greatest event of all time, the conquest of death by the Prince of Life. Immortality is a necessary belief, if we are to live well now. We must live as though we shall never die if we are to live successfully, contentedly and courageously. S	1	Psalm 23	Mother, Home and Heaven are three of the dearest words in the language. Mother's Day, observed for forty years, has become increasingly popular, because it has fulfilled a felt need. Because of an over-emphasis upon sentimentality, the Church has in recent years wisely sought to shift the emphasis from mere praise and glorification of mother to a consideration of what should characterize a Christian home. Jesus Christ is the center of such a home.

In their relentless pursuit of wealth and pleasure they fail to teach their children respect for property and human life. They do not inculcate in their children reverence toward Almighty God. Religion must be brought back into the home. Religious training is far more important than proper diet, fresh air, or exercise.

Parents and children could study the Church School lessons together and have family devotions at the table or around a family altar. A great deal of helpful literature is now available for this purpose. Every family should own a Church Hymnal. It should not be forgotten that the Bible is also very rich in devotional materials.

M	1	Ezek. 15:1-8	God's mercies are new every day. The Creator has never ceased his activity in behalf of his children. The creativity of God is undoubtedly appreciated more deeply by those who live in rural sections, and by city dwellers who are privileged to spend vacations in the country. Periods of recreation help to destroy the monotony of living. S	21	Psalms 147	Wholesome recreation helps to bring back the note of joy, a mood entirely too rare today. Life is a serious matter, but should not be a gloomy affair. As Christians we should constantly spread sunshine and gladness. It is our duty to be kind, for many people we meet are having a struggle with temptation, sorrow or loneliness. OCTOBER, 1949

Days		DAILY BIBLE LESSON	DENOMINATIONAL EMPHASIS October: National Missions "As many as were ordained to eternal life believed, and the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region."
Week	Month
S	1	Acts 1:1-21	Two convictions providing the dynamic of National Missions need to be revitalized:
40] The Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity			Eph. 3:13-21    Heb. 12:18-24 Luke 7:11-17    Matthew 11:25-30
S	2	Psalm 146	First , the conviction that the Gospel should be proclaimed throughout America, wherever there are men and women to hear it. This defines one of our frontiers. While church membership is the highest ever reported, we face the reality of having 48% of our population unrelated to any church. If mankind is to be saved "through acceptance of the fact that God is Love," then we need desperately to remind ourselves of the necessity for the proclamation of the Gospel.

41] The Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity			Eph. 4:1-6    Heb. 4:9-13 Luke 14:1-11    Matthew 12:1-8
S	9	Psalm 107:1-16	Second , the conviction that the Church should be brought into existence throughout America, wherever there are men and women to be brought into its fellowship. This indicates a second frontier. The vastness of this task baffles us as we read a report from the Census Bureau of the Federal Government informing us that 50% of the population of the country has migrated or moved during the past six years. No wonder the appeal comes for the establishment of new mission churches.
M	10	Acts 4:13-37

42] The Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity			1 Cor. 1:4-9    James 2:10-17 Matthew 22:34-46    Mark 10:17-27
S	16	Psalm 48	As these two simple but basic convictions gave the earlier endeavor of Home Missions its drive and power, so they may inspire us to meet the needs and opportunities of our day. At the same time, we dare not minimize or neglect those more humanitarian elements of our task by which we seek to help our brethren in special situations, remembering that human beings have physical as well as spiritual needs. This, too, represents a frontier.

43] The Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity			Eph. 4:22-28    James 5:13-20 Matthew 9:1-8    John 9:24-41
S	23	Psalm 29	Based on such convictions, our total missionary effort should result from a deep inner and personal desire— first , to be in right relationship with God, assuming and defining that relationship to be one of love as defined in I Corinthians thirteen; second , to be in right relationship with our fellowmen, without which talk about love for God is idle mockery; and, third , a desire for this same relationship among all people. Only as our efforts are thus rooted can they be fruitful.

Veteran missionaries have returned to their posts and new recruits have been sent to fill strategic vacancies, as conditions permitted. ## 1949

President L. W. GOEBEL

Dr. Goebel

It is June, 1948. The message we have been asked to write will, however, not be read until it appears in print in this volume which carries the title, "1949 Year Book." Will our reflections on the state of the Church and of the world still be valid when your eyes rest on this page?

As children of God our concerns are not primarily with things that are temporal, but with values that are as eternal as God himself. "Man's Disorder and God's Design" is the theme chosen for the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches to be held in Amsterdam, August 22 to September 5. It would seem to us that we are justified to believe that this significant Assembly, composed of delegates from more than 100 Churches representing every continent, is part of God's design. If, indeed, the Churches have been impelled by the spirit of God in the desire to unite their witness and their services not only at Amsterdam, but as members of the body of Christ, in the days that follow, then we have reason for the joyous hope that 1949 will be for the whole Christian cause a year of abounding blessings.

At the Amsterdam meeting Christian men and women of every land will do more than to pray with one another to face common problems; they will find themselves confronted with the challenge to help lead the Churches of many countries and, indeed, the whole world out of the wilderness of confusion and hopelessness. The Churches of America especially will be confronted anew by eye-witnesses who will return with a challenge to the members of the churches not to grow weary in well doing. 1949 dare not be for our Church a year of abatement in works of compassion. Just the opposite must happen. We shall need to open more widely the floodgates of Christian love so that our hands may be ever ready to help. Thus only can we bear witness to the power of that greater love of God whose designs are grounded in righteousness, mercy and peace.

1949 will bring us a step farther into the area which we characterize as the atomic age. Fear grips the hearts of men when they utter this word. And yet they who concern themselves most directly with the development of atomic power prefer to think of a day of more abundant life made possible through this new conquest of nature. As Christians we should be prepared to look hopefully into the future for we are aware not merely of human self-interest and greed, the lust for power and national prestige which threaten us anew with war, but we have faith in that God with whom all things are possible and who can give us peace in our day. This is the faith we need to recapture in 1949.

All of this means that we pray that in these and many other areas of life our people may seek in 1949 more earnestly to discover the designs of God and, having made that discovery, permit His spirit to endow them with power to do His will. May God grant it.

Eden Seminary to Celebrate Centennial

T. C. BRAUN

During the academic year 1949-50 Eden Seminary will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of its founding. Plans for the observance call for a series of celebrations scattered through the year and reaching their climax in a special jubilee service to be held on the seminary campus. At the same time it is hoped campus for three or four days of inspiration and fellowship.

The Eden Centennial will have church-wide interest because Eden not only is one of the three seminaries serving the needs of the entire denomination but also combines within its history traditions from both the Reformed and the Evan-that all churches of the denomination, and especially those in synods directly served by Eden, will give emphasis to the occasion by observing an Eden Seminary Day.

Another event on the calendar is a special Centennial Convocation in the spring of 1950, when it is hoped that a large number of Eden alumni will find it possible to return to the gelical branches of the church. Interestingly enough, both traditions go back to the same year for their beginning.

In 1848, only eight years after the organization of the Kirchenverein des Westens, which eventually became the Evangelical Synod of North America, the founding fathers decided to establish a seminary for the training of ministers and two years later in 1850 opened such an institution at Marthasville, Missouri. When the comparative isolation of this location proved to be more of a handicap than a help, the institution was moved to the outskirts of St. Louis. More recently the present site in Webster Groves, Missouri, was acquired.

Also in 1850 leaders of the Reformed Church in the United States, in recognition of the rapid expansion of the church west of the Allegheniæ, organized a college and seminary at Tiffin, Ohio, which later was merged with the department of theology of Ursinus College to become Central Seminary, of Dayton, Ohio. Central Seminary, in turn, merged with Eden Seminary in 1934 as one of the first fruits of the merger of the Evangelical Synod of North America and the Reformed Church in the United States.

Today Eden is a fully accredited graduate school of theology, offering a three-year seminary course leading to the bachelor of divinity degree and a two-year course for women leading to the master of arts degree in Christian education or in Church social service. With a student body of ninety men and women and a faculty of ten full-time professors and two part-time instructors, it occupies a beautiful million dollar campus, entirely debt free, eight miles from downtown St. Louis. Two dormitories, a combination administration and classroom building, a dining hall, president's residence and professors' homes provide the necessary equipment for the operation of the school.

Of the more than twenty-five hundred ministers who have received their theological education at Eden, or at the seminaries now represented by Eden, 1225 are living today and comprise 48 percent of the ministers now serving the Evangelical and Reformed Church. They are to be found in all of the thirty-four synods and in the mission fields of the church in China, Honduras, India, Japan, and South America.

Recognizing that if it is to continue fulfilling its function as a seminary of the church it must be prepared to meet the ever changing and ever growing demands of the times, Eden has set certain centennial goals which represent urgent needs of the immediate future. In the first place, the comparatively recent inauguration of the courses for women as well as the increase in the number of married students have emphasized the necessity for an additional dormitory in order to provide adequate living accommodations for all who seek to enrol among its students. The erection of such a dormitory at an early date is imperative.

At the same time a larger endowment fund is needed to meet the increased cost of operation and the decreased earnings on investments. It is hoped that the present fund of $750,000 can soon be increased to at least a million dollars.

A third centennial goal calls for the remodeling and enlargement of the chapel and the library reading rooms. The present facilities can be greatly improved without involving a major construction program.

The board of directors of Eden has appointed a centennial committee, which under the chairmanship of Dr. Walter A. Scheer, of St. Louis, has been assigned the responsibility of planning the centennial celebrations and of raising the sum of $500,000 to commemorate the occasion. President F. W. Schroeder is giving a considerable block of time during the coming year to this project and every member of the Evangelical and Reformed Church will be given an opportunity to share in it.

Relief — Reconstruction — Advance

Dr. Henry C. Koch

The three words in the title of this article "Relief, Reconstruction, Advance" denote the areas of interest covered by the Commission on World Service. Members of the Evangelical and Reformed Church have come to look upon these three words as summing up their special concern for needs brought about by the war. For the triennium 1947-1950, the General Synod meeting in St. Louis in 1947 authorized the minimum goal of three million dollars, with the following allocations:

$1,750,000	For World Service, primarily Relief
750,000	For International Missions, primarily Reconstruction
325,000	For Board of National Missions
100,000	For Board of Christian Education
75,000	For Board of Pensions and Relief

This article will of necessity have to concern itself with a description of the continuing program of world service. It will therefore not convey the extreme urgency that characterizes almost every action of the Commission. Rarely a day passes but what consideration must be given to finding a way of bringing immediate relief to a distressing situation. The world is still full of hungry and sick people. Millions remain homeless and destitute. Even though these lines may be read many months after they are written, there is every evidence that our Church will be appealed to to meet life and death situations for years to come. This article cannot deal with the description of such situations, but the fact must be borne in mind if a true picture of our services is to be obtained.

Relief

The distress brought on by human suffering always makes first claim upon human emotions. To Christians suffering takes on even greater significance as they think of their Lord's compassion for humankind. During the war years our Church set up a committee for "War Relief." At the time of its modest beginnings it would have seemed unbelievable that so much distress could be wrought by the war, that it would be so prolonged, and that the Church would be called upon to play so large a part in its alleviation.

It is obvious the Church cannot meet the need for clothing, food and medicines in its entirety. But the total needs must be the concern of the Church and she can do two things:

1. She can by constant emphasis and by enlisting her membership in active participation cultivate the temper and mood of the nation so that public concern will be affected. This should lead, not only to giving temporary relief, but taking steps for permanent rehabilitation and to remedy injustices between nations.

2. The Church must enlist its members to give through the Church to support her own agencies giving relief to critical areas of need where the Church is called upon to minister.

The Evangelical and Reformed Church has played a significant role in keeping relief needs before the minds of her own membership and in making the emphasis in the interdenominational program. It might be best classified into two categories: that of supporting agencies which make relief a part of their program and that of actively soliciting contributed supplies.

In the former instance it would be impossible to carry on any kind of rehabilitation program in wartorn countries without a goodly measure of relief being a part of it. In the second instance it is a program of relief entirely and has been a large part of the giving of our people in general and our rural people in particular. All of our people have been called upon to contribute clothing, and to make cash contributions to the purchase of goats and heifers. In particular we have looked to our rural people to contribute food in kind: wheat, corn, beans, milk, eggs. Raw cotton has also been contributed for clothing. The contributed supplies from rural areas have been accepted as contributions toward the goal and credited to the church of which the contributor is a member.

In addition to the above we have encouraged, to a limited degree, the sending of packages as an "over and above contribution" to world relief.

packages in order that the personal element in giving might be stimulated, then we would advise sending it to a pastor with instructions that such distribution be made as will reach the most destitute families. We can always furnish names of pastors from our office of the Commission on World Service.

The American people are most willing to give for relief if they know the need. This is evident from the large contributions made to many secular organizations as well as the Church.

E. Reynolds, Acme Photo

By that we mean that no credit is being given toward a church goal. It is hard to estimate what would have happened had not the American people been so generous in sending packages to people in wartorn countries, and had not Christians contributed packages to specific instances of need. Yet beyond the sending of packages to relatives and well known people, the practice should be discouraged in favor of the sending of food in bulk. Monies contributed to world service for the purchase of food in carloads is a far more economical and satisfactory way. If churches wish to send

Reconstruction

There is no way of separating relief from reconstruction, especially if reconstruction is conceived of in terms of rehabilitation of people. No restoring of faith and meaning to life is possible without a real concern for the bodily needs of people. It is estimated that some thirty million children in Europe alone are suffering from one disease or another largely due to malnutrition, exposure and abnormal living conditions and environment.

There is, therefore, a two-fold character to our program of reconstruction. In the first place it does mean aiding in the rebuilding of institutions and churches. In the second place it implies the total program needed to restore a people to their rightful spiritual heritage as children of God.

It will be many years before the churches in any of the wartorn countries will be rebuilt. Germany with more than ten thousand churches destroyed and many more damaged, not to speak of educational buildings and parsonages, is facing a serious predicament. Ten thousand dollars will furnish the materials, not available in Germany, for the construction of one rubble church, architecturally beautiful and of lasting endurance. This rubble church will seat 425 people. Only a few of such churches have been built but where they have appeared amidst the rubble and debris yet evident everywhere, they have been a veritable source of inspiration. It was as though resurrection occurred out of death. Our Commission has committed itself to providing money for seven such churches by the end of 1948.

The rebuilding of institutions is of equal urgency. New leadership awaits the educational facilities for training. The doors are wide open everywhere, in Japan, China, among our own mission fields, and in Europe. The larger portion of our allocation to the Board of International Missions will go to this purpose. For Germany our Commission has committed itself to contribute through Church World Service, the interdenominational agency combining relief and reconstruction efforts of all the churches, a sum of one hundred thousand dollars by the end of 1950. All of these commitments come within the categories of the allocations as listed in the beginning of this article.

Space does not permit to indicate further our program of reconstruction. Suffice it to say that it involves the entire program necessary for the restoring of those channels through which faith is found again and given new meaning.

Advance

Life means growth and advancement. Unfortunately too many Christians fail to see any advance in Christian faith and idealism. Our world service program is planned on the premise that with our program of relief and reconstruction we move forward. The Christian church cannot stand still.

Advancement is necessary on the home front if the outreach is to be sustained and significant. Reconstruction, of course, means a degree of advancement as all such planning takes into account the needs of tomorrow. But there must be a great deal more. At every point lack of funds makes the real advance impossible.

As a few illustrations will clearly indicate, our mission fields are ripe unto harvest as never in history but they need money for construction and development. Will other ideologies fill the vacuum? In our own land our program calls for a minimum advance in national missions, entirely inadequate. Millions of people are on the move and every new community offers an opportunity and challenge. Can we maintain our own faith unless we share it?

Our Board of Christian Education, facing the difficult task of building well for the future, must create a new curriculum. The small sum allocated to that purpose must surely be a minimum and conceiving its serious import every member of our Church should give until our goal is far oversubscribed and the unlimited maximum becomes the minimum. Thus God gave for us!

Union with the Congregational Christian Churches

DR. WILLIAM E. LAMPE

The Final Draft of the Basis of Union of our Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches was completed on January 22, 1947. This was printed and widely circulated in both denominations.

The E and R Church

As was the case with the five earlier drafts, copies of the completed Basis were sent to every minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and for every delegate from the charges to the Synods. During the fall and winter and spring of 1947-1948, the Basis was carefully studied and even discussed and in some instances votes taken, in a large proportion of our congregations.

The General Synod of 1947, after full debate, approved the Basis of Union and the proposed union by a vote of 281 to 23. The General Synod then submitted it to the 34 Synods with the stipulation that "If two thirds of the Synods vote approval the General Council shall declare it adopted."

The Synods at their annual meetings in the spring of 1948 gave very careful consideration to this important matter of union with another denomination. The procedure was different in Synods but as a rule they freely debated the proposal for an hour, or two hours, or even an entire session, and took the vote at another session of the meeting. All of the Synods except one voted favorably. In nine of the Synods the vote was unanimous in favor of the union. The total vote of the Synods was 2874 in favor of the union and 308 against, a majority of more than nine to one.

The vote by Synods was as follows:

	Yes	No
California .....	31	10
Central Pennsylvania ..	54	6
Dakota .....	2	18
East Pennsylvania .....	65	0
Iowa .....	97	17

In accord with the procedure adopted by the General Synod, the General Council at its meeting in September, 1948 declared the Basis of Union adopted by the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The C C Churches

The procedure in the Congregational Christian Churches is different. Their General Council (corresponding to our General Synod) has the final vote in matters of church union. Of course the congregations, associations, and conferences vote first. Although there is no rule, their Commission on Interchurch Relations and Christian Unity had recommended that the vote of the General Council should be favorable provided 75% of the congregations, of the associations, and of the conferences voted favorably. Their official vote was: 32 conferences voted favorably to 2 against; 152 associations voted favorably to 38 against; 2976 congregations voted "Yes" and 1334 voted "No." The vote of the congregations was thus only 65.5%. They have 5765 congregations of which 1455 did not vote at all.

The General Council, meeting at Oberlin, Ohio, June 17-24, 1948, received the report of its Commission on Interchurch Relations and Christian Unity and devoted three entire sessions to its consideration. An organized group, known as the Evans-ton Meeting, which had been largely instrumental in securing the negative votes of the congregations, put up strong opposition and offered many resolutions. The very large majority of the delegates favored the union and from the beginning could have adopted almost any resolution they proposed. They realized, however, the justice of the claim that at least 75% of the congregations should vote favorably. Otherwise, there might be a split and the E and R Church would have been invited to unite with a denomination which had lost some hundreds of its congregations in the uniting process. The minority insisted that many points of the Basis of Union were not clearly stated. The General Council, therefore, adopted eight "understandings," which it declared to be in harmony with the spirit and purpose of the Basis of Union. The opposition died. The vote approving the Basis of Union was 1000 to 12.

In order to secure the favorable vote of at least 75% of the congregations, a strong "Committee of 15," including some of those who had been leaders of the opposition, was constituted and given authority and funds to present the matter of union to the 1334 congregations that had opposed and to the 1455 that had not voted. Congregations which had already voted favorably might change their votes if they so desired.

The expectation was that the 75% favorable vote would be received by January 1, 1949, but if the percentage be smaller a special meeting of the General Council will be called to determine what percentage would be regarded as sufficient.

The General Council of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, at its semi-annual meeting held at Cleveland, Ohio, September 29-30, 1948, recorded the approval of the Basis of Union by more than two-thirds of our Synods and declared it adopted.

Our General Council took note that the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches had adopted a series of interpretations.

Our General Council expressed the hope that the union may move forward to a speedy and satisfying conclusion.

Students for the Ministry

The entire Church has recently come to grips with the problem of Christian life enlistment in general and students for the ministry in particular perhaps as never before. Through the media of President Goebel's office, the Committee on Life Enlistment, the circulating of helpful literature, the summer camps and conferences, the stewardship essay and poster contests and the interest of pastors and parents the work of undergirding the Christian ministry has been given a wholesome and greatly needed emphasis. Correspondence has been maintained with upwards of twelve hundred youth through Dr. Goebel's office in ways that are bound to yield a rich harvest, with God's blessing.

The appended lists represent the number of students for the ministry as reported in the 1947 statistics submitted by the congregations. The figures, which are entirely the responsibility of the churches furnishing them, probably present a truer picture than any released heretofore, and should give the Church food for serious thought.

Names and Stations of Missionaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

The following lists contain the names and addresses of the missionaries representing the Church in our seven stations, viz., Africa, China, Honduras, India, Iraq, Japan, and South America. A comparison with the lists shown last year reveals that a number of those who were under appointment then are now on the frontier making their contribution to the work in no uncertain way. This evidences progress which is most encouraging to the leaders as well as to the home Church. The names of those who are now preparing themselves for life service abroad are given at the end of every section.

The post office addresses of the ordained ministers as well as of the appointees will be found in the Register of Ministers in this edition of the Year Book. The names in italics after the post office addresses of lay missionaries represent the Stations at which they are working. These names are not part of the post office addresses. Such addresses of missionaries home on furlough as were known at the time of going to press are given in the Register of Ministers.

Deceased Ministers of the Church

From August 15, 1947, to September 15, 1948

WE REGRET to report the passing of fifty ministers since the last Year Book was published. Of this number 14 were pastors, 34 were retired and 2 inactive. The oldest reached the ripe age of 92 and the youngest was 41. Their average age was 73 years, 6 months and 25 days. The five Year Books from 1945 to 1949 have listed the death of 244 ministers.

The deceased this year include a president emeritus of a seminary and another of a college; four professors emeriti and an alumni secretary of our colleges; the president of the Evangelical Synod of North America at the time of the merger and one former president of a Synod of the merged Church.

Grateful mention is made of the splendid cooperation of all those who assisted in furnishing photographs of the deceased. Because of attendant circumstances this is very difficult in many cases. It was possible to secure all but one this year.

Of these honored dead it may well be said, "They rest from their labors and their works do follow them." "Therefore, let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the perfecter of our faith."

Locations of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the street location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and St. John's.

Please send notes of any errors immediately to W. S. Kerschner, Statistician, Office of the Secretary.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

SYNODS OF THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

SYNODS IN PENNSYLVANIA

The Presidents of the Thirty-four Synods

ALL the presidents of the 34 Synods are pastors. Four of them were re-elected for a second term at the Spring meeting of their Synods. Six new presidents were elected, four of whom succeeded to the office in the regular routine and way, the fifth was elected to succeed a minister who saw fit to relinquish after having served one year, and the sixth succeeds a president who had served but one year when called to a pastorate in another Synod. The pictures of the Presidents, together with their address and the Synods they serve, are given herewith, arranged by Synods in alphabetical order. Their complete addresses may be found in the Register of Ministers and the Rosters of the Synods indicate the extent of their jurisdiction.

"The president of the Synod shall have been a member of the Synod for not less than three years and a minister of the Church for not less than five years. . . . The term of office for the officers of the Synod shall be two years. After two full terms of office, the president and vice-president shall not be eligible to succeed themselves." (By-Laws, Article V, Sec. 57.)

Review of the 1947 Statistics

The 1947 statistics gathered from the congregational reports show a communicant membership of 714,583 as of December 31, 1947. This represents a gain of 6,201 over the same date in 1946, and does not compare favorably with the net gain of 13,102 in 1946.

The accessions for 1947 were by confirmation 21,399, by transfer 13,157 and by renewal 14,676, or a total of 49,232. The losses were by death 11,536, by transfer, 11,809 and by erasure 17,105, or a total of 39,700. The purging of the membership rolls in several large congregations and the dismissal of seven congregations figured heavily in the 2,800 increase in the erasures. The net gain of 6,201 members was registered in spite of the fact that 1,667 congregations reported no net gain in membership. One synod had 73 congregations in this group, and every synod had at least eight.

The number of charges and congregations was less by seven and six, respectively, than in 1946. The gain in the number of ministers was six, the pastors now numbering 1,757, and the ministers without charge 713. Sixty-one congregations failed to submit a statistical report for 1947, twenty-nine of these being in one synod.

In 32 of the 34 synods the total accessions exceeded the losses, East Pennsylvania and Potomac Synods alone being in the minus column. The number of charges shrank from 2,061 to 2,055, and that of congregations from 2,791 to 2,784. The average membership of the congregations was 256 as compared with 254 in 1946 and 248 in 1945.

It was a great satisfaction for the third consecutive year to note a substantial advance in the Sunday church school enrollment, the increase of 9,638 bringing the enrollment to 443,048. The average attendance was 60 per cent, as compared with 61 per cent in 1946. The increase in the number of children eligible for membership and a new urge in church school evangelism in certain synods are probably reflected in this increase. The number of students for the ministry was 561, as compared with 564 in 1946. Of this number 392 were in our denominational schools and 169 in other institutions. North Illinois, South Indiana and Missouri Valley Synods led with 41, 37 and 36 respectively.

The financial picture as shown in the summary of contributions for benevolences and current expenses is one of lights and shadows. Based entirely upon the reports received from the congregations (about 325 of which are without pastors at any given time of the year) the total paid upon the benevolent Apportionment was $1,767,012, or an increase of $39,282 over the amount paid in 1946. A lamentable falling off was recorded in the contributions to the world service fund, the total receipts being $630,900, or a loss of $474,797 as compared with 1946. It should be noted, however, that a large percentage of the congregations made their reports agree with treasurer Keck's report, which included only the receipts from June 1, 1947 to the end of the fiscal year. The receipts for the entire calendar year 1947 would show a larger total.

The receipts for current expenses took another great jump in 1947. The total of $9,808,448 represents an increase of $952,142. The total benevolences aggregated $3,713,801 and for congregational expenses $14,048,182. The grand total of the congregational offerings for all purposes was $17,761,983, or an average per member of $24.87, as compared with $23.14 in 1946 and $20.71 in 1945.

The property of the congregations was valued at $113,308,135, broken down into $12,702,674 as the valuation of the parsonages, and $100,605,461 that of all the other church buildings together.

Statistical Tables of the Congregations

For the Year Ending December 31, 1947

This issue of the Year Book is the fifth in the series published in the greatly enlarged form. Throughout the five years the largest section by far has been that containing the statistical tables of the almost 3,000 congregations. The statistical tables hereinafter contained present the figures for the year ending December 31, 1947. Because these tables went to press on July 15, 1948, it has been impossible to take account of all the changes in pastorates. The Rosters shown elsewhere carry the changes to a later date.

The pastors and synodical and congregational officers cooperate with the editor in securing the congregational reports. In 1944 there were 102 non-reporting congregations. The low for the five years was reached in 1946 when there were 56. In 1947 there were 62, but this loss was compensated by the fact that there were 21 one hundred percent synods, which is the best in the five years. These synods in the order of their achieving the coveted goal were as follows: Mercersburg, Lancaster, Rocky Mt., N. E. Ohio, Philadelphia, New York, Cent. Penna., Southern, Pacific N. W., S. E. Ohio, Lehigh, Susquehanna, S. Illinois, California, Reading, S. Indiana, East Penna., S. Wisconsin, N. Illinois, Pittsburgh and Kansas City. Eight Synods were 100%ers throughout the five years: East Penna., Lancaster, Lehigh, Mercersburg, N. E. Ohio, Pacific N. W., Philadelphia and Reading. Potomac and N. W. Ohio slipped this year after four perfect years. New 100%ers this year are Kansas City and S. Wisconsin.

Of the 62 non-reporting congregations 54 were either vacant or supplied, and only 7 had pastors. The sad fact is that several of this latter group are repeaters year after year in their indifference to this important phase of the work. The Church has yet to evolve a technique whereby they may be aroused from their lethargy and jolted into cooperation and action.

The 62 non-reporting congregations are distributed among the Synods as follows: Dakota, 29; Missouri Valley, Nebraska, Northern and West New York four each; Michigan-Indiana and S. W. Ohio 3 each; Iowa, Magyar, N. Wisconsin and Potomac two each, and Kansas City, N. W. Ohio and Texas one each.

The statistical report blanks are mailed to all congregations with pastors during the last week of the year, and to the 300 or more vacant or supplied congregations shortly after. The prescribed deadline for returning the prepared reports to the Statistician and the synodical presidents is the following February 1st, and is so printed upon the blanks. In spite of all that is always done through letters, the Church papers, etc., the response is far from unanimous. On February 1, 1948, only 46% of the reports had been returned to the Statistician. The securing of the last 200 entailed more time, effort and expense than the other 2600!! The splendid cooperation on the part of the officers in all but two or three of the Synods and of the supply pastors and officials in the more than 300 pastorless congregations is a splendid tribute to their interest, fidelity and consecration. Because this is so, the following statistics are not dry and dead things, but instead they throb with life. Could it be said that it requires a like interest, fidelity and consecration to evaluate and appreciate them?

CALIFORNIA SYNOD

EXPLANATION OF CODE AND SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated, and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no report for 1946, and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available.

Code for the first column: A indicates that the church is located in a unit of an area with a population of over 100,000; B, between 25,000 and 100,000; C, between 10,000 and 25,000; D, between 2,500 and 10,000; E, between 500 and 2,500; F, under 500, and in the open country.

How much does it matter to you

- IF Youth gets the right start?
- IF Youth learns to think straight?
- IF Youth is helped to see clearly?
- IF Youth comprehends 'one world'?
- IF Youth believes in one God?
- IF Youth has faith in the future?
- IF Youth is fired with the Spirit of Service?

You can demonstrate how much it means by sending your sons and daughters to one of your own church-related colleges, which believes in giving youth a thorough foundation in Christian culture. Catawba College is such a school.

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME

WOMELSDORF, PENNSYLVANIA
Rev. R. S. Vandevere, Superintendent

Bethany children are happy and contented. Contentment follows perfect coordination of child aspirations and manager's sympathetic understanding.

Bethany is proud of and grateful for its beautiful and healthful natural setting. But we are far more proud when we can boast of a staff of employees who can make our children truly happy in their adopted Home. When our children rejoice in the life experiences of Bethany then are we confident that we are attaining the acme of administrative ideals.

We are grateful to the members of our Evangelical and Reformed Church for the splendid support they have rendered our Home. Bethany needs and appreciates the prayers and goodwill of our many friends.

In your daily walk, enlist a new friend for Bethany.

"53 YEARS OF CHRISTIAN WELFARE TO CHILDREN AND AGED"

Bensenville Home Society

Serving needy children—providing both institutional and foster home care for them. Our two-fold program includes also Christian care for the church-related Aged.

Because of the loyalty of churches and friends, we have completed 53 years of service to those entrusted to our care. The past is but a challenge to a still greater future. In this "greater future," will be a new modern home for old people; construction on the new building will not commence until funds are on hand. Contributions are needed to help this worthy cause. Literature will be sent upon request.

Bequests, legacies, memorials and special gifts will enrich the lives of neglected and needy old people and little children . . . by supporting such an agency as Bensenville Home Society, you will be making a great contribution to Christian Welfare. Memorials to departed loved ones will help us immeasurably in this great undertaking at Bensenville.

On the Marthasville and St. Charles Farms, which are communities of their own, buildings and equipment provide a home for about 250 permanently handicapped human beings. Some are very helpless, needing much personal care. For them there is fellowship, entertainment, recreation. They worship the Lord at morning and evening devotionals, and in Sunday services.

But the work is suffering for lack of attendants. These workers at Emmaus must come from the rank and file of our Church. For more information on this kind of Christian service to the

Winnebago Indian Mission and School

Black River Falls and Neillsville, Wisconsin

Hungry children need food for bodily growth; hungry minds need stimulation for healthy mental development; hungry souls need the Bread of Life for the nurture of strong Christian character.

For 70 years the Winnebago Mission and School, one of the special projects of the Board of National Missions, has heeded the command of our Lord, "Feed my lambs, feed my sheep." More than half again as many Indian children without proper care and school opportunities applied for admission last year, than we could accommodate.

Individuals and church organizations, the Indian Mission needs your help! Your gifts and prayers are solicited. Also have fine opportunity for church organizations to handle genuine handmade Indian baskets and beadwork at a profit. For information write to Winnebago Indian Mission.

STEPS THAT LED TO LEADERSHIP

WHY WERE THE TOWERS SILENT?—Not long ago, church towers, which today send forth beautiful bell music, stood silent and cheerless. Why? Because fine bells were too expensive for many churches; because some towers lacked the strength to support a great weight; because deterioration and breakage had taken their toll.

SOMETHING NEW WAS NEEDED—Schulmerich realized the secret lay in developing a modern carillon—one which would not only produce clear, sweet music but which would also overcome the prevailing difficulties.

A PIONEER WITH A PURPOSE—Naturally, there was criticism—even ridicule—from competitors. But through ingenuity, research, and perseverance, Schulmerich achieved the result: an electronic carillon—brilliant in tone and low in price—which did not even require a tower to house it.

RECOGNITION CAME EARLY—Before long, "Carillon Bells" were ringing from churches everywhere. Approval came quickly, too, from the musical world and from colleges and universities. The tones of the new instrument were crystal-clear, the notes scientifically matched, the volume flexible.

FASTER CAME THE DEMANDS—stimulated by many factors. "Carillon Bells" are custom-made. Engineering is more exact, craftsmanship more expert. Survey, sale, installation, and service are handled completely by men from the Schulmerich factory. Performance is backed by a guarantee broader than that of any similar manufacturer, and Schulmerich's yearly service contract perpetually insures an investment in "Carillon Bells."

INDISPUTABLE PROOF OF LEADERSHIP—Today, Schulmerich is the world's outstanding producer of tower instruments, having installed more than any other manufacturer. And recently an unexpected tribute has developed—imitation! But "Carillon Bells," the original instrument of its type, is made only by Schulmerich Electronics, Inc. It shall continue to thrill with the sweetest bell music ever heard. For information, write Dept. ERC-81.

INSURANCE IS A NECESSITY

This is the company which confines its business within the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Writes insurance on churches, hospitals, orphanages, seminaries, colleges, pastors' household goods and personal effects, pastors' widows and missionaries; also the property of the members in the congregation.

Pastors' and Missionaries' household goods and personal effects are always insured. Pastors' personal property housed in the church office is automatically insured without special endorsement on the policy.

The company writes Fire, Windstorm and Hail insurance, also Extended Coverage. Extended Coverage insurance is important since it gives protection for hazards for which the ordinary fire and windstorm policy does not provide.

All policy holders should make a careful appraisal of their buildings and take an inventory of the contents so as to get their insurance in line with present day values of replacement.

Policies are written on an annual basis for a term of five years. This plan simplifies the payment of premiums. No carrying charge on our policies. Policies can now be written on a five-year term basis.

The company operates under a perpetual charter and policies are non-assessable.

If it is worth having it is worth insuring. Do it today, tomorrow may be too late.

Inquiries addressed to the Home Office will be cheerfully answered.
